

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2056 - SB 2162

April 3, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Imposes a three year limit on the right to petition for judicial review of a decision or action of the Department of Human Services relative to child support payments.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant
Increase State Revenues – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- Increase in the number of petitions filed for judicial review will result in additional costs for the Child Support Enforcement legal staff to attend more judicial hearings which is estimated to be not significant.
- Associated increased costs will be eligible for reimbursement of Child Support Title IV-D federal matching funds.
- Some increase in cases in the court system, which will result in additional state and local expenditures for processing the cases and additional state and local government revenues from fees, taxes, and costs collected. However, such increases will not be significant.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James W. White".

James W. White, Executive Director